Women Institute of Technology was established by State Government in September 2012 under UTU as constituent college to provide the technical education only for girls. The idea behind the establishing this institute in the valley of Himalayas is to empower women by providing technical knowledge and hence open the gateway for jobs and make them self-reliant. The college is situated 20kms away from Dehradun railway station and 10kms away from main bus stand on the NH-72. The nearest airport is Jolly Grant domestic airport which is 30kms from the college.
